Like a circus performer balancing spinning plates, the Special Education teacher faces multiple tasks, demands, requirements and standards, all of which must be held in careful balance.

DayOne Publishing is proud to announce a new reference card created specifically to help special educators improve their instruction, their organization, and their collaboration with both parents and the school community.

This two-sided, full-color laminated card covers a wide spectrum of topics, including:

- How to get started
- Organizing your classroom
- Behavior management tips
- Ways to improve your delivery of instruction
- How to build relationships with your students
- How to accommodate your instruction to meet student need
- How to collaborate with your colleagues
- How to collaborate with parents
- Top tips for implementing Behavior Intervention Plans
- Guidelines for improving your classroom climate
- Tips on Data Collection
- Tips on IEP information

All Special Education teachers will benefit greatly from the wealth of information on this card!
